Berkley Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. In this Christmas novel from Thomas Kinkade and Katherine Spencer, the residents of Cape Light learn that sometimes the best gifts are those that were once lost--and rediscovered. With the new found confidence that comes with her nursing career, Lucy realizes she doesn't need to put up with Charlie's nonsense anymore. But just as she's about to call it quits, a lost looking teenager crosses her path. Seeing that the girl is sick and alone, Lucy takes her in despite Charlie's protests. This can be the thing that makes or breaks their frayed relationship, but right now, Lucy's main concern is getting the girl's real story and helping her--if she'll let Lucy in. With a grown son embarking on his own life, and an ex-husband starting a new family, Betty realizes she's been too busy to find her own life partner. That is until Santa bears an unexpected gift at the Rotary Club's Christmas party--himself. Has the holiday cheer gone to her head, or is she really attracted to a struggling magazine writer who plays dress-up? Betty can tug all she wants on Santa's beard, but unless she believes that goodness comes in different packages, she risks Santa passing her over this Christmas.
