

A Stranger in the Mist (Paperback)

By Bill Denton

Dog Ear Publishing, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Stranger in the Mist is an uplifting tale of heaven and earth, love and friendship, the genesis of a rapturous blessing for humankind, and the diabolical forces that are compelled to stop it. Jenny Stark is the manager of a travel agency. Emmett Zimmerman Monet, nicknamed Easy Money in a takeoff of his initials and name, is a firefighter. These complete strangers walk separate avenues through life, but each is cognizant of abnormal incidents in their daily routines. The threat of harm escalates whenever their paths angle toward convergence. They both suspect a spiritual thread behind the events in their lives. Jenny consults a minister who develops a theory: Her course is littered with the footprints of angels, but she has also drawn the ire of fallen angels, known as demons. Once Jenny and Easy meet, they have a distant memory of a profound friendship- as if they knew each other in another time, another place. Their coupling erupts into a love that is true blue, heartbeat red, and passionately pink. Bill Denton is married, a proud father of two...
