Pre-conceived opinions, proceeding from and formed by an education, and outward influences, widely at variance with the so-called spiritualistic theories, caused me to approach and treat the subjects with all due caution. First, to ascertain, if possible, the truth of certain alleged manifestations. Second, to learn the causes of such phenomena, and, third, to reconcile them with well-known laws in science. Impressed with the thought that no harm can come to anyone, and possibly good may be gained by such an investigation, I give to my readers the results. Prejudice and bigotry in former times have stifled thought and staid the wheels of progress. Galileo when arraigned before the priestly tribunal for his heresy in promulgating the theory of the earths rotation upon its axis, was cautioned under penalty of the severest punishment, to desist from such declarations in the future; yet, he had no sooner left the building where his persecutors had assembled, than he involuntarily exclaimed, it does move. This is now conceded by all; and not only so, but the world of thought moves on; every day, month and year climbing higher, and peering deeper into the mysteries of the hitherto unknown, and endeavoring to cast the horoscope of the future. It is only by understanding natures laws, and living in harmony with them, that mankind will be able to develop towards perfection, as the great God of Nature would have us, and it requires the exercise of deep thought and searching...
