OCLC Number: (OCoLC)52752500 Subject: Environmental monitoring -- Management -- United States -- Auditing. Excerpt: . . . to respond successfully to all known emergencies to reduce the risk to human health and the environment. EPAs revised strategic plan does not indicate why changes were made to various goals and objectives. In our report on EPAs fiscal year 2001 performance plan, we concluded that the plan fell short on providing specifics on crosscutting goals and measures. For example, we reported that EPA did not describe how other federal agencies goals complement or supplement EPAs goals. The agencies fiscal year 2002 performance plan also falls short in this regard. For example, the section of the plan describing coordination with other agencies on safe drinking water is virtually the same as in the prior years plan and does not discuss other federal agency goals that complement or supplement EPAs goals. GAO has identified two governmentwide high-risk areas: strategic human EPAs Efforts to capital management and information security. Regarding strategic human Address Its Major capital management, we found that the agencies performance report did describe its progress in resolving human...
