Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Roxana a Social Drama in Three Acts A library in a house near a university. The room is cozily and tastefully furnished. There are rows of book-shelves with here and there a few small pieces of classic statuary. On the walls are some university pennants and pictures in frames. At the right, rear, is a couch with fancy pillows carelessly arranged upon it. A large table to the left of centre, front, holds papers, a few books, and some photographs in small frames. One or two easy chairs and some with straight carved backs, are in the room. At right is a large open window, at the front side of which are hung some Tibetan ornaments, consisting of a sword with silver, and coral handle and scabbard; a pair of odd boots with long, fringed, colored garters; a hand-drum, made of two skulls, placed crown to crown, with fancy tasselled handle; also a chatelaine to which is attached a long, keen-bladed dagger. The window looks out upon a small park, through which runs a street. At left, a door leads to other parts of the house; at back, centre, open double doors lead to a hall and to the street.
