Everything is perfect. I said out loud to myself. No! It isn't. My inner voice said. No! Everything is perfect. I said out loud again. No. It isn't. It never was. My inner voice said again. Samaira Oberoi, a simple, beautiful girl who means the world to her daddy, falls in love with her childhood crush. Her father, Viren, being completely against love marriages can't believe his little girl would take such a step for a person she has known only for a few days. Sidhant Singhania, on the other hand, is a rich and handsome man who never thought he would fall in love. When he does, his fate makes him hate his love, leaving both the hearts broken. Will Samaira and Sidhant be together? Will her father accept her love after knowing the truth? Will this imperfect love find its way to perfection?.
