Excerpt from Technala, 1912, Vol. 6 The Alabama Girls Technical Institute seal, which is shown for the first time, is the work of Mrs. Howie, head of the line arts department. The four circles within the large one are typical of the several phases of the work of our school. The lower one signifies the academic studies, the foundation of education. The circle to the left pictures a log cabin from which domestic art and domestic science evolved. The circle to the right represents horticulture. The upper circle is typical of art as applied to the home. The date, 1896, is the date of the founding of the Institute. The eagle, on the shield with the date of the beginning of Alabama's statehood, is taken from the great seal of Alabama, and typifies the state protecting this institution.
