MAKING THE CONNECTION (PAPERBACK)

Xulon Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Discover the power in making the connection! Making the Connection offers an impactful, yet practical, easy to understand resource to those wanting a well-grounded connection to God as the power source for abundant living. Just like a lamp needs to be connected to a sufficient power source to give light, so must we be connected to a sufficient power source to live a full and abundant life. The only sufficient power connection is to God through Jesus Christ! Once the divine connection is made we then have access to the power we need to connect effectively in all human relationships. Making the Connection is written to first help you make, maintain or make stronger this divine connection. It then shows how the power of that connection can be activated in the first of all God-ordained human relationship - marriage. So, if you are a seeker or believer, male or female, married or single, this is written for you. Discover the Power - Make the Connection! Rev. Arthur L. Smith is a graduate of International Seminary in Plymouth, FL and has twenty-five years pastoral experience. He is currently the pastor of the Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church, Safety Harbor, FL and serves in leadership in the South Florida Progressive Baptist Association. He has previously served as instructor of Systematic Theology for the Interdenominational Ministers Union. Pastor Smith is married and is father to seven children. He resides in St. Petersburg, FL.
