Not illustrated. 1892 Excerpt: .all our pupils who are preparing for teaching, and can surely get some ideas from all they see and hear to put in practice in their future work, as well as the experience derived from themselves occasionally giving object lessons to the children. Does the school support itself? No. We labor under some disadvantages from being quite outside the city. Many would send children if near, but have nobody at leisure to bring the child: while some who might send do not know the importance of the school. The sums received for tuition are quite varying. Our highest rate has been three mejediehs ($3-7S) Per year the secondary rate two mejediehs ($2.50), while some utterly unable to pay anything have been put in as charity pupils, and fees obtained from native or American friends. A friend in South Acton, Mass., with untiring zeal, exerted herself to obtain our outfit, and has largely secured funds for deficiencies for salaries of teachers and other expenses, which have yearly ranged from $40 to $80. She greatly desires pledges for yearly contributions, be the amount but a small sum, even. We hope the school may continue, supported thus by private or special donations, and we not be obliged to ask aid of the Board. These little ones will soon be active men and women. To help prepare them for good work is a peculiar privilege, because of the peculiar needs in this land. Corinna Shattuck. Marash, Turkey, March 19, 1892. Some...
